

Think of them as house guests with hammers.

When you remodel, you should expect to see a lot of your contractor.

David and Leslie Millsaps have been invited into hundreds of Triad homes over the last 25 years.

The remodeling speaks for itself, but ask their clients about the experience. You'll hear about a husband and wife team that listens and delivers beautiful results...more functional kitchens, safer baths and spacious additions.

And you'll hear about a relationship that makes the process easy and exciting.
